

make the world a better place

Serving as a Girl Scout today means being part of a worldwide organization that builds leadership skills by providing girls with opportunities to discover a strong sense of self, connect with others, and take action to make the world a better place. March 12, 2011 marks the 99th Anniversary of Girl Scouting. During Girl Scout Week, which runs from March 6 through 12, Girl Scouts of all ages celebrate by demonstrating leadership and commitment in ways that have a real impact on their communities.

Girl Scouts is proud that change is one of our greatest traditions. We continue to keep in step with girls' needs while remaining true to the core values of the Girl Scout Movement. The Girl Scout Promise "to help people at all times" is actualized everyday through the many community service projects in which Girl Scouts give back to their local and global communities.

We thank all the volunteers and members in our community for their time, talent and financial support. That spirit of sharing makes it possible for us to continue to be the best leadership experience for girls—today, tomorrow and always.

The Girl Scout Promise

On my honor, I will try:
To serve God and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law.

The Girl Scout Law

I will do my best to be honest and fair,
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring, courageous and strong, and responsible for what I say and do, and to respect myself and others, respect authority,
use resources wisely, make the world a better place, and be a sister to every Girl Scout.
