Golfers Raise Funds for the Girl Scout Leadership Experience

Thanks to all the players who, in spite of it being a hot and humid August day, networked and raised funds for Girl Scouts by participating in this year's annual golf tournament at Meadow Lake Acres Country Club in New Bloomfield, Missouri.

Special thanks go to Corporate Sponsors Central Bank/ Central Trust & Investment Company, Hawthorn Bank, N.H. Scheppers Distributing of Jefferson City and to the Miller Family Foundation. We also appreciate the support of Central Bank of the Lake of the Ozarks for sponsoring the beverage cart, Moser's Supermarket for lunch and AmerenUE for sponsoring dinner.

First place went to the N.H. Scheppers Distributing team, second place to Daly's Duffers, and third place to Team Scott. Make plans to join us again next year for a fun-filled day in support of tomorrow's leaders.

Girl Scouts of the Missouri Heartland's Legacy Circle

Recently, several people who have included GSMH in their estate plans were presented with special pins designating that they are members of the Legacy Circle, the council's planned giving society. We are very appreciative of those donors that have made a gift of cash, stocks, real estate, or life insurance to our council.

Creating your own legacy is a wonderful way to reflect the values that are important to you. If you would like to be a member of Girl Scouts of the Missouri Heartland's Legacy Circle, please let us know that you have included the council in your estate plans. For more information, contact the Resource Development Department.

Laura Hinkebein Retires After 27 Years of Service

GSMH's Chief Development Officer, Laura Hinkebein, retired on October 8, 2010. Please join us in wishing her the best as she and her husband retire to Arkansas, where she says they plan to "do all those things we say we will do when we have time."

Words from Laura:

I am honored to have worked for an organization that supports and advocates for children and provides experiences for girls to grow into caring, confident, and strong women. What an important way to spend your life's work!

Thank you to the many donors who have supported the Girl Scout program over the years. How rewarding it is to see that they understand the importance of girls and women as leaders and make them a philanthropic priority. Donors, your trust and investment in Girl Scouting have paid off. Your financial gifts have created generations of girl leaders who are making the world a better place.

I have met so many wonderful volunteers, donors, and staff members over my 27 years with the organization -- all working together to build girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place. Special thanks to my mentors, Denise Stewart and Jennifer M. Orban. These Chief Executive Officers epitomize the qualities we want for "our girls" -- smart, strong, kind, supportive and encouraging women.

"Make new friends but keep the old, one is silver and the other's gold." Thank you to my many silver and gold Girl Scout friends.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive that reads "Laura Hinkebein".

Laura Hinkebein, Chief Development Officer
Girl Scouts of the Missouri Heartland, Inc.

Girl Scouts Splash into a New Year

In late August, nearly 1,200 Girl Scouts and Girl Scout family members attended an event at the Cape Splash water park in Cape Girardeau, Missouri. The event was a collaboration between 10 service units in the southeastern region of the council. "It was so awesome to see all the volunteers come together to plan this event for girls, and to see families attend in support of their Girl Scouts," said Linda Becker, senior manager for community/membership development. Many new Girl Scouts attended, including Maddie, a Girl Scout Daisy. "It was my first thing with Girl Scouts," she said, "it was so much fun... when can we do it again?" We've got good news for Maddie: our southeastern region is already planning next year's event!

A Tisket, a Tasket, Lots of Pretty Baskets

Girl Scouts of the Missouri Heartland's Annual Meeting will be held on Saturday, March 26, 2011 in Lake of the Ozarks, Missouri. Once again, the event will include a silent basket auction that is sure to be fun and exciting!

Service units, troops, committees, and individuals are asked to put together a "basket" of items that will be part of a silent auction to be held that day. Last year, the creativity was remarkable! Baskets included everything your pet could need, ways to make your life less stressful, and craft ideas for the busy leader. The highest bids were for a beautiful Girl Scout quilt.

The funds raised from the auction will be used to support the financial assistance program in Girl Scouts of the Missouri Heartland. With your help this year, more girls will develop the courage, confidence, and character that they need to thrive in today's ever-changing world. Make plans to contribute a basket - and to bid on your favorites!

A Sweet Event

Thin Mints, Peanut Butter Patties, Caramel deLites and Shortbread Cookies: these are just four of the eight varieties of delicious Girl Scout Cookies that are enjoyed by millions of people every year. Now what if you add whipped cream, nuts, caramel, fresh fruit and other delectable ingredients to the cookies? You'd have the makings of an exciting fundraising event sponsored by Girl Scouts of the Missouri Heartland: Just Desserts.

Scheduled for Tuesday, March 15, 2011 (5:00-7:30 p.m.), the event will be held at the Dempster Hall Atrium on the Southeast Missouri State University campus in Cape Girardeau. Participants will taste delicious desserts by local chefs, assisted by Girl Scout troops. Awards will be given in various categories, including People's Choice!

If you would like to help sponsor or purchase a ticket (only $25) to attend this "sweet" event and help girls realize their dreams and develop leadership skills, contact the Resource Development Department.

What Did You Do Today? A New Look For Girl Scouts

By Anne Hyde

Girl Scouts 2010 ... it's for today's busy, curious, and creative girls. Whether they want to go to Space Camp, learn to sail, conquer their fears, or travel the world – we've got them covered. With more than two hundred program events, themed series, and camp activities planned for girls this year – plus troop, online, and travel opportunities – Girl Scouts of the Missouri Heartland has something for everyone!

As we prepare to usher in a second century of Girl

Scouting in 2012, Girl Scouts across the country are uniting to share the new Girl Scout Leadership Experience with as many people as possible. It's no secret to those already involved in Girl Scouts that we are the premier leadership development organization available to girls, but we want to make sure that everyone knows it.

We are not simply "cookies, camping, and crafts." We are empowering girls to discover a strong sense of self, connect with others in an increasingly diverse world, and take action to make the world a better place. We already reflect that from the inside, with girls who embody great service and strong leadership. Now, we're reflecting it from the outside, too, with a new servicemark (logo) and brand campaign that matches our fresh, contemporary program model. Our website, program guide, newsletters, recruitment materials, and more have already been infused with our new brand assets. Keep an eye out for more to come - an updated look that helps our communities know that we are serious about connecting with and serving the needs of today's girls.

Girl Scouts Take Action in Their Community

Although we are only a few months into the school year, Girl Scouts throughout our jurisdiction have already begun taking action in their communities. Girl Scout Daisy Troop 70276 in Jefferson City, Missouri recently worked on the It's Your World – Change It! Girl Scout journey, and selected an untended garden area near their school to beautify. The girls in the troop each brought a plant, along with their gardening tools and their families to help. Together, the group planted, fertilized, and watered the garden space, which they plan to continue caring for throughout the year. "The area planted is right down the road from our meeting location, so the girls can tend to it as part of their responsibilities at the meeting," wrote troop leader Kim Bruce, "Also, we get to drive by it each time we meet and feel great that we were helpful!"

Thank You!

Thank you, donors, for helping Girl Scouts of the Missouri Heartland provide the foundation that girls need to become leaders. Because of you, more girls will have more opportunities to discover a stronger sense of self, connect in a diverse and changing world, and take action to make the world a better place.

Annual giving donations of $100 or more that were made to Girl Scouts of the Missouri Heartland from October 1, 2009 - September 30, 2010 are listed here. We have tried to ensure that our list is comprehensive. If corrections need to be made, please contact us so that we can amend our records. Thank you for your commitment to girls.

Girl Scouts Learn About Pet Safety

Girl Scouts of the Missouri Heartland recently partnered with the Killuminati Foundation in Springfield, Missouri to educate girls about pet safety and compassion. Jennifer Patterson, Education Chair for the Killuminati Foundation, facilitated an interactive seminar for about forty girls; they learned about animal shelters and adoption, how to safely approach and greet a dog, and how they could help animals in need throughout their community.

"A lot of people didn't know that Girl Scouts do things like this," said Krista Johnson, one of the event's coordinators, "It was great to see so many girls out here learning practical skills and how to be advocates for animals." After the educational session, the girls met some of Killuminati's foster dogs and made toys from recycled denim to donate to the program.

Trefoil Tea

Girl Scouts of the Missouri Heartland is hosting a fundraising Girl Scout Trefoil Tea to support the Girl Scout

Leadership Experience for girls. The high tea event will be held on Saturday, April 30, 2011 at the Tower Club in Springfield, Missouri. All proceeds will help provide high-quality, educational events for girls, safe and secure program properties, financial assistance to families in need, and outreach programming for at-risk youth. Cost of this elegant event is $75 per person. For registration or sponsorship information, please contact the Resource Development Department at 877-312-4764.

100th Anniversary

2012 will mark the 100th anniversary of Girl Scouting, one hundred years since our founder, Juliette Gordon Low, announced "I've got something for the girls of Savannah, and all of America, and all the world, and we're going to start it tonight!"

The anniversary will be an opportunity for the future – our goal is to ensure that the girls will be able to participate in another century of Girl Scouting. To continue building girls of courage, confidence, and character into the future, philanthropic support will be critical. It's important that you, our donors, know that your financial gifts are helping establish girls and women as a philanthropic priority for years to come.

Look for information about the anniversary on the council's website during the coming year. Check out the alumnae section and encourage former Girl Scouts, members and volunteers, to reconnect with the greatest leadership development organization for girls and join us as we celebrate 100 years of Girl Scouting achievement and impact.

The Girl Scout Mission

Building girls of courage, confidence, and character, who make the world a better place.

The Girl Scout Promise

On my honor, I will try:

To serve God and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law.

The Girl Scout Law

I will do my best to be honest and fair,
friendly and helpful,
considerate and caring,
courageous and strong, and responsible for what I say and do, and to respect myself and others,
respect authority,
use resources wisely,
make the world a better place, and be a sister to every Girl Scout.
